

UPDATE on the CENTENARY Sept 2009

100

Changing the World: Badges still available, direct from Trading or depots use codes 7011 (cloth 70p) and 7013 (metal £1). Results of this project will be available in November.

Adventures: It has been agreed at the UK Girlguiding Exec on 17.06.09 that the maximum number of Rainbows attending a rainbow Overnight event will be increased from 15 to 30. It was also agreed that Rainbows can now attend overnights with Brownies as long as the number of girls does not exceed 30. All this info will shortly be circulated to Rainbow advisers and will be in the next eUpdate on the website. Rainbows go Wild - visit the Centenary Website.

Big Brownie take Over - Opportunities still available for October/November. Check out the website.

Guides Get Away to B - Watersport Adventure Brownsea Island price has now been reduced to £250.00 excluding travel. More info on Centenary website.

Tall Ships: Wanted 350 members aged 14-26 to crew the Jubilee Sailing Trust's Lord Nelson during the summer of 2010. It will be in Boston 16/17 July 2010 for a crew change, with also a possibility for a small group of our members to stay on board overnight.

Centenary Maze: Opens this month, full details on the Centenary website.

Centenary Camp: Ratios have now been relaxed. LEADERS CAN NOW TAKE WHAT SIZE OF GROUP THEY WISH with booking deadlines extended to end of October, you do not have to be a Guide Section Leader to take a group of girls, camp fully catered including the washing up, there is also a special sub camp for girls who do not wish to be part of a camp group. Camp fees also guarantee entry into Fusion.

Centenary Banners: If you wish to hire a banner contact our PRA, Anne Pryce or myself.

Insurance: For event cancellation purposes only, you need to contact Unity Insurance.

Fireworks: Girlguiding have teamed up with 'Fantastic Fireworks' for more information please contact me for details.

Fusion: Need volunteers, see website centenary/fusion. Forms for small groups will be available with Guiding in October.
