

Lincolnshire South Training Bursary

The Lincolnshire South Training Bursary is to help adults (over 18) members in Girlguiding Lincolnshire South to attend an out of County guiding organised training event or training event relevant to your guiding role. This bursary is not designed to be used for First Response or Food Hygiene courses as they are available through subsidised County events.

- The event can be of any duration.
- This bursary can only be applied for once a year.
- The bursary can cover up to 50% of the cost of the event up to a maximum of £50 and a proportion of the travel costs up to a total maximum of £100.
- Each application will be considered on its own merit and awarded at the discretion of the County Commissioner. Other sources of funding will be taken into consideration when awarding this bursary.
- Funds available for this bursary are limited each year (1st July to 30th June).
- Proof of attendance and receipts will be required.
- Your local commissioner will need to sign your application form.
- Applications need to be sent in at least four weeks before the event. No late applications will be considered.

Applications need to be sent to:
Wendy McCallum, County Commissioner,
20 Wedgewood Drive,
Spalding,
